Editors Note

Welcome to flaming July's edition of the Ecton View.

Here in the editors office we are always thrilled to receive requests from the good people of Ecton asking us to advertise a village event.

If you remember an Event is something that's enjoyed by more than 6 people, not in a garden, with or without masks (guides followed) and should be fun!

You can now enjoy a lovely cup of tea and a slice of cake at the Ecton Brew coffee shop, which will be opening regularly at the village hall. - See below.

Live music returns to the Three Horseshoes, outside on the decking, with the Skunks (they don't stink) on the 11th July and on 18th July, the very popular, Accrington Stanley are back again.

We will be back next month with more exciting summer events!

Wendy

Ecton Churchyard Monthly Tidy Up

Our next churchyard tidy up will be during the morning of Saturday 3rd July (weather permitting!), And then on the Saturday 7th August.

During recent weeks the grass appears to be growing faster than we can cut it, so if you can spare some time to help strimming or mowing on the above dates, you will be made very welcome.

Church Services in July

We are in the process of looking at a new pattern of worship for the three churches of Ecton, Wilby and Great Doddington which will hopefully be in place from 25th July. Please see notices on the church gates for more details.

Worship on Zoom is now at 6pm rather than 4pm.

For July the following services will be held in the churches:

Sunday 4th July	10am	Wilby	Holy Communion
Sunday 11th July	11am	Gt Doddington	Holy Communion
Sunday 18th July	10am	Ecton	Morning Prayer
Sunday 25th July	To be confirmed

Hygiene regulations and social distancing remain in place and face coverings must be worn in church.

All are welcome, but because restrictions have reduced the maximum number of people it is possible to have in the building, it is important that you let Revd. Jackie Buck know if you intend to come to a service. A temporary record of those attending will be taken for track and trace purposes.

Ecton church is open for private prayer on Saturdays 9.30am -10.30am (except when there is a service on the Sunday)

We hold worship on Zoom at 6pm each Sunday.

Please contact Revd. Jackie for the link.

Rector's Letter July 2021

On 22nd July the church celebrates the life of Mary Magdalene, the saint after whom Ecton church is dedicated.

In the Bible all four Gospels give Mary Magdalene a unique place among Jesus' followers and yet, despite being mentioned around fourteen times in Scripture, we know very little about her.

We know from her name that she came from the town of Magdalene, a place situated on the shore of the Sea of Galilee, about three miles from Capernaum.

Mary was healed by Jesus and became one of his closest and most loyal followers. She provided for Jesus and the disciples, along with some other women, at her own expense. It is also thought she was the woman who washed Jesus' feet with her tears and dried them with her hair.

Mary Magdalene was one of the few people who stayed with Jesus while he was on the cross, witnessed his burial in the tomb, and was rewarded for her loyalty by being the first woman to see the risen Jesus.

Finally to her credit, it was Mary whom Jesus trusted to take the news of his resurrection to the disciples, earning her the title, in the early church, of the "Apostle to the Apostles", with Apostle meaning one who is sent.

Mary's life then demonstrates how an encounter with Jesus really can change lives. Through Mary Magdalene the depth of God's love, mercy and forgiveness shine out and surely the peace that must have entered Mary's heart would have been seen by all who knew her.

May God's peace, healing and blessing be yours also, as we continue to live through these pandemic times.

Yours in Christ,

Revd. Jackie Buck

Ruth, Matthew, Richard and Robert wish to thank you all for the lovely kind letters, cards and gifts of flowers, received in their sad loss of Graham.

Also a special 'thank you' for the generous donations for the RNLI, received in memory of Graham.

A Few Reminders

Watering cans/butts – cover the top of cans/butts so fledgling birds don't fall in and drown. A plastic plant pot pushed into the top of a watering can works well.

Hedgehogs – if you think you have a hedgehog possibly nesting in your garden, DON'T DISTURB, as the female is likely to abandon the nest and the young will die.

Frogs etc – check before mowing, especially longer grass as frogs, toads or hedgehogs could be hiding there.

Big Butterfly Count

This runs from 16th July to 8th August. Information on how to take part and submit your sightings on web site - bigbutterflycount.butterfly-conservation.org

Ecton Walks - 2021

Ecton Walks are continuing and during the last few weeks we have done walks around Grendon and Summer Leys. These will continue on a regular basis and will be publicised via the email list.

If you would like to be included in the list please let me know.

Ecton Lottery

We have to say a very big THANK YOU to everyone who has continued to support the Ecton Lottery, the surplus from which helps to keep the fabric of our lovely church in good condition.

In the magazine this month you will find an envelope containing details about the coming year's lottery subscriptions. Please do support this if you are able.

We are hoping to reinstate the Second and Third Prizes this year, subject to us receiving enough subscriptions.

Subscriptions can be via cash, cheque, or through direct bank payment.

Thank You Day - Sunday 4th July

The National Thank You Day is still going ahead in a COVID friendly way. We would like to decorate the village, so will be hanging bunting on the 3rd. If you would like to join in here are some ideas:

Decorate your garden

Organise a garden party, invite your friends and neighbours (similar to VE Day), enjoy a drink or two and some food. Suggest you start at 1pm, toast all those you want to thank at 5pm, wander around the village and say hello to others. Just remember to be COVID careful.

Using the heart displayed on the next page, to tell us who you would like to thank, take your heart or hearts to the church porch on July 4th and we will then display your thanks at the village hall on 4th September.

ECTON PARISH COUNCIL

At the Annual Meeting in May, four of our members, including our Chairman, retired from the Council.

Without an appointed Chairman, we would not be able to hold any Meetings.

So, in the absence of anyone else willing to take on the position this year, I have reluctantly agreed to take on the roll once again for 1 year only.

Hopefully next year another member of the Council will feel able to take over from me.

Following the addition of two new members we still have two vacancies to be filled.

Anyone interested in joining the Parish Council would be very welcome and should contact our Parish Clerk;

Mrs Shirley Wong
